

WHO'S WHO

Welles, Sumner: born New York City, October 14, 1892; son of Benjamin Welles and Frances Swan; married 1925, Mathilde Townsend; two sons. Education: Groton School, Groton, Massachusetts; Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. Secretary of Embassy, Tokyo, 1915-17, Buenos Aires, 1917-19; assistant chief Latin American Affairs Division, Department of State, 1920-21, Chief, 1921-1922; Commissioner to the Dominican Republic, 1922-1925; delegate to Conference on Central American Affairs, Washington, D.C., 1922; personal representative of President to offer mediation in Honduras revolution, 1924; delegate Central American Conference, Amapala, Honduras, 1924; member Dawes Financial Mission to Dominican Republic, 1929; Assistant Secretary of State, 1933; Ambassador to Cuba, April-December, 1933; again Assistant Secretary of State, December, 1933-1937; delegate Inter-American Conference for Maintenance of Peace, Buenos Aires, 1936; Under Secretary of State for U.S.A., 1937-43; delegate Meeting of the Foreign Ministers of the American Republics for Consultation, Panama, 1939; Chairman, Inter-American Financial and Economic Advisory Commission, 1939-43; special representative of President to report on conditions in Europe, 1940; representative of the U.S. on Provisional Administration of European Colonies and Possessions in the Americas, 1940; member, Central Committee, American Red Cross, rep. State Department, 1941; accompanied President Roosevelt at meeting at sea with Prime Minister Churchill of England, August, 1941; representative of U.S. at Third Consultative Meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of American Republics, Rio de Janeiro, 1942. LL.D., Columbia, 1939; Brown, 1939, New York (hon.), 1942; Phi Beta Kappa, Harvard, 1939; Omicron Delta Kappa, University of Maryland, 1939 (honorary); Doctor University of Brazil (honorary), 1942; University of Toronto, 1943; Lafayette College, 1944; Publications: Naboth's Vineyard, 1928; The world of the Four Freedoms, 1943; The Time for Decision, 1944; Where Are We Heading?, 1946. Recreations; riding, gardening. Address: Oxon Hill Manor, Oxon Hill, Maryland, U.S.A. Clubs: Metropolitan, Washington, D.C.; Knickerbocker, Union, New York.