

GENERAL LUCIUS DUBIGNON CLAY

Army officer; born Marietta, Ga., April 23, 1897;
s. Alexander Stephen and Sara (Francis) C.; B.S., U.S. Military Academy, 1918; m. Marjorie McKeown, Sept. 21, 1918; children-- Lucius D. Jr., Frank B.; Commd. 2nd Lt., 1918 and advanced through the grades to General 1947; instructor Officers Training School (Engineers), 1918; with Engineer troops, 1918-24; instr.
in civil and military engineering, U.S. Mil. Acad., 1924-28; river and harbor assignments; represented U.S. at Permanent Internat. Navigation Conv., Brussels, 1934; on General MacArthur's staff in Philippines, 1937; in charge of constr. Red River Dam, Denison, Tex., 1938-40 in charge of defense airport program, Civil Aeronautics Administrn., 1940-41; asst. Chief of Staff for Materiel Service of Supply; appointed deputy director for war programs, Dec.
1944; Deputy Military Governor Germany (U.S.), 1945-47; Commander-in-Chief, European Command and Military Governor of Germany (U.S.), March 1947 to date.

Member American Society of Civil Engineers; Society of American Military Engineers; Permanent International Navigation Congress.