

GRAYSON KIRK - CURRICULUM VITAE

Born: October 12, 1903, Jeffersonville, Ohio

Education: 1924 - Miami University, B. A.
1925 - Clark University, M. A.
1923-29 - Ecole libre des Sciences Politiques, Paris
(American Field Service Fellowship)
1930 - Wisconsin, Ph.D.
1936-37 - Social Science Research Council Fellowship
(chiefly spent at London School of Economics)

Academic History:

1928-30 - Instructor in Political Science, Wisconsin
1930-35 - Assistant Professor of Political Science, Wisconsin
1936-38 - Associate Professor of Political Science, Wisconsin
1938-40 - Professor of Political Science, Wisconsin
1940-43 - Associate Professor of Government, Columbia
1943-44 - Research Associate, Yale Institute of International Studies
Since 1943 - Professor of Government, Columbia

Government Experience:

1942-44 - Head of Security Section, Division of Political Studies, U. S. State Department
1944 - Member of U. S. Delegation staff, Dumbarton Oaks
Conference
1945 - Executive Officer, Third Commission (Security Council) San Francisco Conference

Publications:

Philippine Independence, (1936)
Contemporary International Politics (with W. R. Sharp, 1940)
War and National Policy, Syllabus (with R. P. Stebbins, 1941)
The Study of International Relations in American Colleges and Universities (1947, published by Council on Foreign Relations)

Contributor to:

Foreign Affairs, Political Science Quarterly, American Political Science Review, Yale Law Review

Appointed Provost of Columbia University, November 1, 1949
Appointed Vice President as well as Provost of Columbia, July 1, 1950
Became acting head of Columbia University in President Eisenhower's absence on indefinite leave, March 1, 1951
Appointed President of Columbia University and Trustee of the University, January 20, 1953.

Honorary Degrees: Miami, LL.D. '50; Waynesburg, LL.D. '51; Brown, LL.D. '51;
Union, LL.D. '51; University of Bologna, Ph.D. '51; Commander in the order of Orange-Nassau (Netherlands) '52; Columbia, LL.D., '53; University of Puerto Rico, LL.D., '53; Clark University, LL.D., '53; New York University, LL.D., '53;
Princeton, LL.D. '53; University of Wisconsin, LL.D. '53; Jewish Theological Seminary of America, LL.D. '53.

Director: Socony Vacuum Oil Company, Incorporated; International Business
Machines Corporation