

April 17, 1930

My dear Mr Basave:

I found the little book - for which I thank you. I was even more grateful for the inscription you wrote on the title page.

There are friendships that do not have to begin. They just are. They do not grow because they start full grown. This is such a one.

Hasta la vista
Harry Cave.