Dear Friend Du Solier:

I received the Buena Vista manuscript and was waiting to thank you when the copy of the reprint from Cuadernos Americanos arrived. It is now here, and I can thank you for both at the same time.

The translation of your section is about completed, and the papers will be published in the July number of "American Antiquity" along with that of Mac Neish and other papers on Mexico and Central America.

Are you going to be able to get into the field this season, and if so, where will you work?

Sincerely yours,

James B. Griffin
