My dear Dr. Méndez Plancarte:

Being a close friend and great admirer of Concha Urquiza, I have been greatly saddened by recent news of her death. Through friends of hers I have heard that you are making an edition of her work. I should greatly appreciate it if you would have a copy sent to me, and I am enclosing a bank draft for $2.50 which I hope will cover the cost of mailing as well as the price of the book.

You undoubtedly do not remember me, but, at Concha's suggestion, I visited you in August, 1944, in regard to my doctoral dissertation on Manuel José Othón. I am happy to report that the study is completed, and I hope to be able to publish it soon so that the work of this fine poet may be better known in the United States.

A collection of Concha Urquiza's work will be a great treasure to me, and I shall be most grateful for your favor in having a copy sent me.

Very truly yours,
