Dear Mr. Robertson,

I want to thank you very much for your so kind welcome in Monterey. I had a good time in your pretty city and I enjoyed very much your wonderful dinner.

I received your letter in Topoltepec and I am very glad to read your so kind appreciation of my speech. It is a great encouragement to me.

As for the letter you forwarded to me, which is signed: Ana Gracia, I must confess to you that neither I nor the Panblini were able to translate it and that I have not yet found over here a Spanish speaking person. I hope to meet one tomorrow when I address the teachers and students of the Teachers' College here.

Will you, please, extend my best regards to Mr. Robertson and to your daughter and son-in-law.

With my thanks again and
my hope to see you again,

I am, dear Mr. Robertson
very sincerely yours.

C. Maudslayi

Will you also say to the distinguished Counsel General of the United States
how much I was pleased and honored to have him at my side on that occasion and express to him my best wishes for a complete and prompt recovery of his wife.
Thank you.
