

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

RALPH JOHNSON BUNCHE

Born: Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A., 7 August 1904.

Marital Status: Married: three children, born in 1931, 1933 and 1943.

Educational Background:

Elementary and
Intermediate schools:

Detroit, Michigan;
Albuquerque, New Mexico;
Los Angeles, California.

High School:

Jefferson High School, Los Angeles, California
(graduated February, 1921).

College:

A.B. (major in Political Science)
University of California, Los Angeles, June 1927
(highest honors)

Graduate School:

A.M. (major in Government),
Harvard University, June 1928;
Ph.D. (major in Government and International Relations, Harvard University, February, 1934;
Doctoral Dissertation: "French Administration in Togoland and Dahomey". (Awarded Toppan Prize, 1934)

Post-Doctoral:

Northwestern University, 1936 (Anthropology);
London School of Economics, 1937 (Anthropology and Colonial Policy); University of Capetown,
South Africa, 1937 (Anthropology).

Fellowships:

University Scholarship (Harvard University, 1927-28)
Ozias Goodwin Memorial Fellowship (Harvard University, 1929-30);
Toppan Prize (Harvard University, 1934);
Social Science Research Council Fellowship,
1936-38 ;
Rosenwald Fellowship, 1932-33.

Academic Societies:

Phi Beta Kappa;
American Political Science Association (Member Executive Council 1944-46; Vice President 1949-50).
Council on Foreign Relations;
American Society of International Law;
American Philosophical Society;
Advisory Council, Research Center on World
Political Institutions, Princeton, N. J.;
Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences.