Somerset House and Waterloo Bridge, London

BRITISH
MANUFACTURE

POST CARD

LONDON, ENGLAND

Londres 26 Feb 1908

Somerset House and Waterloo Bridge, London, are kept the records of wills, births, marriages and deaths. In front stretches the graceful Waterloo Bridge, which is declared to be the most artistic of those crossing the Thames. It is built of Aberdeen granite, and dates from soon after the battle the name of which it bears.
