

CONNEMARA FARM
FLAT ROCK, N. C.

July 15, 1957

Dear Dayton Kohler:

You should know I have been hard pressed and offer sincere regrets for this belated reply. The combination of my work schedule and my health is such that I could not undertake the writing of the Lincoln piece that you mention. Yet the fellowship you and I have should somehow continue across the years.

As ever,

Carl Sandburg