

FRANK WATERS
TAOS, NEW MEXICO

June 19, 1952

Dear Mr. Kohler -

You will understand my delay in answering your letter of May 21 upon hearing that it followed me from Taos to Las Vegas, Nevada, & back to Taos, and down here to Albuquerque where I will be for another ten days.

If that "critical study" did not scorch & unreadability the paper it was printed on, you will find it in the New Mexico Quarterly Review - I believe the Fall 1949 issue, as the U. of N. Mexico Press which printed it, published my first volume Washed Gods, Navaho and Pueblo Ceremonialism about a year later, which was the winter of 1950. If you wish I will confirm

TAOS, NEW MEXICO

This when I get back up to Taos, but I believe it's a safe bet. The title is correct — "Frank J. & the Regional Impulsive." I forgot the name of the author &
don't know where he hails from, but there would probably be no objections if you wished to quote from it — at least not from our Review or another. Good luck with your digging.

Sincerely,

Frank Waters
